

I have been on the Indiana State No-Call List for a year now and have enjoyed the freedom of not being interrupted at meal times and during the evening hours. I think this should be a "state's rights" issue and not a Federally regulated item. Please allow Indiana to maintain its "No Call List" as it is. Thank you